

PAYSON HARD WHEAT FLOUR

PURE TABLE SALT

KING KOAL

RAY

GERMADE

COMB HONEY

BLUE GRAY SERVICE

Phone 88

We Do It NOW

McKune Forwarding Company

DEATH TAKES ONE MORE
OF THOSE WHO PIONEERED

SARAH HARROWS HORSLEY.

Sarah Harrows Horsley, wife of Samuel P. Horsley of Price, passed away last Monday morning a few minutes after 10 o'clock at the home of her son, A. W. Horsley, president of Carbon stake, with whom deceased and her husband had made their home for a considerable time. Death was due to pneumonia from which Mrs. Horsley had been ill but a very short time. She failed to respond to all that medical skill had to offer.

Mrs. Horsley was the daughter of Jacob Harrows and Lydia Bloomfield, and was born April 3, 1829, at West Walton, (New York). Eng. and was therefore in her seventy-eighth year when the summons came. She became a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, March 1, 1858, being baptized by Elder Joseph T. Smith. She was married to Samuel P. Horsley, December 25, 1858.

Mrs. Horsley was the mother of twelve children, three of whom have preceded her to the grave. The remaining sons and daughters are Arthur W. Horsley, Ernest S. and Herman H. of Price, Frank H. of Moxton, Ralph of Victor, John of Bunker, Ida, Mrs. Laura E. Topham of Paragonah, and Mrs. Agnes M. Gubler of Lund, Nev.

Deceased emigrated to Utah with her husband in September, 1877, living at Joseph in Sevier county from October, 1877, to April, 1878, going from there to Paragonah, at which place she lived until December, 1911, at the latter date coming to Price, that she might be close to most of her children residing here. Mrs. Horsley was identified with the Paragonah Ward Relief society as secretary and counselor for many years.

Deceased was a kind and affectionate wife and mother, a good neighbor and a consistent Latter-day Saint, and died with the hope of a glorious resurrection. Surviving her are forty-five grandchildren and eight great grandchildren, most of whom are residents of Eastern Utah.

Funeral services were held in the tabernacle yesterday (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, presided over by Bishop Albert Bryner. The opening hymn by the choir was "I Need Thee Every Hour," followed by prayer by Elder Oliver J. Harmon. The choir sang "Abide With Me." The speakers were Elder John H. Pace and Bishop Bryner; both of whom spoke words of comfort to the mourners and eulogized the life work of the departed one. Other numbers by the choir were "Thou Art My Father," "Thou Art My Father," and "Thou Art My Father," followed by the benediction by Elder Henry G. Martin. The remains were laid away in city cemetery, the grave being dedicated by Bishop Albert Bryner.

Mrs. W. C. Benfer entertained the members of the ladies aid society of the Methodist church last Saturday afternoon. The regular meeting day is Thursday, but that day being Thanksgiving last week the meeting was postponed until Saturday.

Neil M. Madson is in New Mexico this week figuring to buy a bunch of goats. He expects to bring them to the ranges of Carbon and Sanpete counties. Madson passed through Price last Friday evening and will likely return the middle of next week.

Considerable alfalfa and clover seed is coming into Price from Emery county for shipment to the east and west but the bulk of the season's crop is yet in the hands of local buyers to the south, principally at Huntington, Castle Dale, Perton and Emery.

Lieut. E. Santachi, Jr., commandant of the Agricultural College of Utah cadets at Logan, began in his classes this week the discussion and solution of military problems with the aid of war maps, following the system used in Germany for the training of officers.

H. U. Mudge, president of the Denver and Rio Grande, last week visited the Somerset, Colo., coal camp of Utah Fuel company on his way back to Denver, Colo., from Salt Lake City. He was accompanied by General Superintendent Ferguson of the Colorado division of Utah Fuel company.

Joseph Stokes of Black Hawk had his right foot crushed by a motor-car at Black Hawk last Sunday. He was taken in to Salt Lake City last night by his brother, William S. Stokes, of Black Hawk. Dr. J. E. Dwyer attended him at the camp. Between trains the injured man was cared for as well as could be by Mrs. Alice Sage at the Tavern.

Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week are Ember days, when special rules of fasting and abstinence are observed by the Catholics. Last Sunday was Advent Sunday in the Episcopal and Catholic churches, marking a season of special religious preparation for the coming of Christmas. The day also marks the beginning of the ecclesiastical year.

Grand Junction's News of last Friday has this bit of information of more or less interest locally: "The chamber of commerce last night endorsed the Midland Telephone company organization, headed by J. N. Corbin, who has decided to make the headquarters of the company here. Corbin announced that he has leased the old La Sal company line from Gleno to Monticello and will conduct this with the Mack line, giving this city connection with Southern Utah."

D. A. Plimly, United States immigration inspector, returned from Green River to Salt Lake City Wednesday after having arrested Jim Halpas and Kanela Mandronis. They

BLESSINGS OF A BANK ACCOUNT

It brings many blessings—here are a few of them—installs economy, promotes industry, inspires thrift and helps to build up a fund for independence. No better time to come in and start an account with us than now. Four per cent paid on savings accounts, compounded semi-annually.

Price Commercial & Savings Bank
Price, Utah

JUDGE FRISBY PASSES

Father of Mrs. A. Burgener of Price
Is Dead At Provo.

Last Tuesday night Joseph H. Frisby, justice of the peace and former mayor of Provo, died in that city following an operation for appendicitis which was performed about ten days ago. Less than three weeks ago his wife died, and her death greatly affected him and reduced his vitality.

Deceased was born in Birmingham, Eng., and was aged 65 years. He arrived in Utah in 1884, having crossed the plains with an ox team. He lived in Coalville for a time and went from there to Arizona. About twelve years ago he settled in Provo and engaged in the mercantile business. He was elected mayor in 1909, and served two years.

He was city magistrate at the time of his death. The funeral will be held tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon. Deceased was the father of Mrs. A. Burgener, the latter the wife of Prof. A. Burgener of the Carbon county high school. Prof. and Mrs. Burgener left Price for Provo last Tuesday in response to a message that Judge Frisby was very low.

CONTINUATION IN THE CASE OF YOUNG GESSAS

The case of Jonas Gessas, charged with involuntary manslaughter, which was scheduled to be resumed before Justice of the Peace Martinson at Salt Lake City last Tuesday, was continued without date. Boren X. Christensen, attorney for Gessas, found it necessary to be out of Salt Lake City and this delayed the case. Gessas was driving an automobile which struck Edward Davies and Miss Gladys Mitchell, causing the death of both. He is under bail, as he has been since the tragedy.

Dr. F. S. Thome will make regular trips now to Havawatha and Mohrland. His office at the present time is with Dr. J. E. Dowd. Dr. Thome still makes his regular calls at Helper the 10th to 20th of each month.

Smoke Elk Pride Cigar, Tel. 152.

CONJOINT PROGRAM

Classy Entertainment Arranged For Next Sunday Evening.

The Mutuals aim to give the public a thoroughly instructive session next Sunday evening. Among the important features on the program will be the address of L. A. McGee on the season's eventualities. There will be a mixed quartet from the high school and a ladies' trio, directed by Mrs. Lillian Bird. A number of other high class musical and rhetorical selections will be rendered, and the entire evening will be given to the program, the lessons being dispensed with for the occasion. The program follows:

Opening Song, "Lead Kindly Light"—Congregation.

Mixed Quartet—Directed by Prof. S. H. Pross.

Cornet Solo—Prof. Fred E. Woods. Address, "Money, Its Source and Purpose"—L. A. McGee.

Christmas Reading, "At the Turn of the Road"—Miss Ruth Whitney.

Vocal Trio, "The Roseary"—Mrs. Bird, Miss Wootton, Miss Woods.

Saxophone Solo—George Mathis. Benediction.

Mrs. L. A. McGee has opened her studio on North Ninth street and is ready to take orders or give lessons.—Adv.

Mrs. Anna Sheets, dressmaking, at Mrs. Perkins, North Seventh street.—Adv.

Smoke Elk Pride Cigar, Tel. 152.

Open For Business!

I am now open and ready for business in the Viglia Bros. grocery store and can serve the public with the choicest kinds of meats. Nothing but first-class stuff sold over the block.

Prompt delivery to any part of the city. Phone us.

R. L. ROGERS

NOTICE!

Spend $1.50 and save the price of a new suit by letting Acme Cleaners and Tailors French dry or steam clean your suit.

Hats cleaned and blocked and retrimmed.

Consider us before buying a new Suit or Overcoat.

We will save you money. Out of town orders given prompt attention.

Phone 64, Turner Building, East Main Street, Price, Utah.

W. F. MYERS
PROPRIETOR.

Before Buying Jewelry

I would be pleased to show you my line of Watches, Rings, Diamond Rings, Lockets, Pendants, Lavallieres, Fobs, Bracelets, Wrist Watches, Hand Painted China, Cut Glass and Novelties.

This store has a reputation for selling Honest Goods which has been won by fair dealing for the past four years in Helper. See my line before buying and be convinced.

S. A. ELAM, JEWELER
HELPER, UTAH.We Can Prove It!

Potatoes fluctuate in price with the market but no matter what the market, our price is the lowest.

When ordering Groceries at this store you can depend on prompt and courteous service, quick deliveries, honest weight, dependable goods. Our experience in the business makes it easy for us to please you. This is the household headquarters.

Fruits and Vegetables, both canned and fresh, are so low that you should buy your winter supply at once to be safe against advances.

Farmers' and Stockgrowers' Store
PRICE, UTAH

Bath Benefits

The skin should throw off certain poisons generated by the body. For the skin to perform its functions properly, right bathing is required.

We have all the requisites for right bathing.

Neutral Soaps that clean thoroughly, Bath Sponges that add luxury, Bath Mitts and Brushes to make the skin healthy, Toilet Waters to stimulate and purify the pores, Bath Powders that correct the "brackish" water.

J.B. Roberts
The Rexal Store.

OVERCOAT TIME

Smart dressers express profound surprise at the vastness of our display of Overcoat fabrics direct from Lamm & Company, Chicago.

We're showing some "working" new models that you'll appreciate the minute you set eyes on them, and if you'll just pay us a visit, we'll clearly and definitely demonstrate the many superior features of our made to measure clothes by taking your measure for your new Winter Suit or Overcoat.

FRANK L. BUCKIO
Tailor
PRICE, UTAH.

PRICE AND NEARBY

C. C. Johnston of Harper delivered a bunch of beef steers last Monday in Helper.

The Bee Hive girls gave a hard times ball this (Friday) evening at the tabernacle.

Auguste Nicolas and Maria Lahnbourg, both of Price, were licensed to wed at Salt Lake City last Saturday.

Mrs. E. L. Carpenter of Salt Lake City is visiting with her sister, Mrs. James L. Ferguson, at Terminal, Cal.

It is anticipated that the new school building at Price will be completed in time to hold school therein after New Year's.

William A. Hunter and Gladys Eva Tutton, both of Panguitch, were united in marriage last Monday afternoon by Justice Middleton.

Photographer Kopf expects to have his family here from Huntington this week. He is well pleased with his business so far at Price.

Engineer Joseph Plunkett, running out of Helper and well and favorably known locally, is reported to be quite ill at his home at Grand Junction, Colo.

The Acme Cleaners have an important announcement in this impression of The Sun. They are located in the Turner building, East Main street, and do first-class work.

Walters-Block company comes to the Elko theater Saturday, December 11th, playing "Coronation." The company is well spoken of by the press of Utah where it has appeared.

Tuesday was the last day of the excursion rate of thirty-five dollars to the San Francisco exposition. Beginning last Wednesday the railroad fare for the round trip is fifty dollars.

Next Monday, December 6th, is designated as celery day in Utah. All persons are urged to send at least one bunch of Utah's incomparable celery to someone outside of the state at that time.

Carbon county Greeks are being asked to meet at Helper on December 12th to form a Greek community. It is proposed to incorporate the association, which is for mutual welfare purposes.

William T. Jones has announced the engagement of his daughter, Myrl, to Lee Sherrin of Castle Dale. The marriage will take place some time next month, says Provo's Post of last Friday.

Mrs. L. A. Lauber and Mrs. G. E. Dench gave a dinner to a dozen boy friends Monday evening at the Lauber home in honor of the sixteenth birthday of their son, Clarence Lauber and Edward Dench.

Harry Osborn, the Helper printer who forged the name of Editor Lee of the Times of that town to several checks, has been bound over to the district court in bonds of five hundred dollars. He is in jail.

Taxes under the new law passed by the last legislature become due the Saturday prior to the first Monday in December, which is tomorrow, Saturday, December 4th. Taxes not paid on this date bear 5 per cent penalty.

Freighters report the Willow Creek road out of Helper over the hill to be in good condition. However, more freight goes out of Price through Soldier Canyon than by any other route.

The season for fishing for trout and bass closed last Tuesday evening. It will reopen on February 15th. Fred W. Chambers, fish and game warden for Utah, admonishes all persons against fishing between now and that time.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Mathis are entertaining a new son at their home in Price. The young man is now about ten days old, hale, hearty and husky. There are also new babies at the homes of Tony Milano and E. Bernardi.

Arthur E. Gilman, a student at Brigham Young University from Stora, suffered a dislocation of the left elbow at Provo last Tuesday while at work in the gymnasium. A local physician was called and attended the patient.

Price's band boys are to give a dance at City Hall tomorrow (Saturday) evening, December 4th, to which everyone is most cordially invited. The receipts are to apply towards the maintenance of this excellent musical organization.